Within less than three weeks Fulton County residents will go to the polls to elect their various county, district and city offices. In my estimation it is extremely more important than ever that we elect people who will be a credit to the office they seek . . . who will serve the public and not their own personal interests . . . and most of all to elect those persons who are qualified by training and qualifications to hold those offices.

I hope I live to see the day when election laws will be passed making it mandatory for a candidate to run for office on his qualifications alone and not because a candidate "needs" the job. Obviously, all candidates need the job, else they would not go through the rigorous campaigns they do just for the glory of the title. In this respect I think it must be tremendously discouraging to a candidate to train themselves for a particular public office, either by education or experience, and then be defeated at the polls by a candidate running on what has commonly become known as a "sympathy ticket."

To share a person's hardships in life is a very fine and noble gesture and all of us want to do our share in that direction. But somehow when those hardships are put to public scrutiny, oftentimes magnified beyond their real conditions, for the sake of victory at the polls . . . it doesn't always leave a pleasant memory in the minds of clear-thinking, public-spirited voters.

Somehow or another I make it my business to take a good look into the platforms of the various candidates who seek public office. I always like to take a better look at those candidates who run on the "sympathy" ticket. And I urge you to do the same. Don't take the candidate's word for it . . . don't take the candidate's family's word for it. Investigate for yourself. You'll be amazed sometimes at the true conditions you will find in the lives of the "sympathy" candidate.

Within recent days I have heard it mentioned in some circles that Mr. X is a good, efficient and honest candidate, but Mr. So-and-So needs it more. Sadly, the person making such a statement is often unable to give any concrete background on the candidate's qualifications for that office.

I don't want you to get the impression that I think all needy candidates are unqualified or that their need for the office is not real. Its just that I think public office, the handling of taxpayer's money, the keeping of official records are much too important to relegate them to persons whose sole campaign issue is "sympathy."

In fairness to the people they serve, every candidate for public office seeking election in the May primary ought to feel it a privilege to tell the public: "I want to be elected because I think I can make you a good public official. I feel I am qualified to handle the duties of the office I seek and for that reason, and that reason alone, I ask your vote and influence."

It is not always fair to the public to use personal problems as a campaign issue. People being the way they are, they are often misled about those personal problems. If a candidate misleads the public about his personal problems, you can almost know that the office will not always be conducted with the voters interest at heart.

Before I cast my vote for any candidate I am going to consider his record of qualifications, training and experience. I am also going to give great consideration to the present office-holders who are seeking re-election. If in my own mind I think they have done a good job and have been outstanding public officials, I am going to vote for their re-election no matter how long they've held the job. If in my estimation the county or city would be better served by vot-

FAILURE TO FILE INTEGRATION PLAN PERMITS DECREE

Only High Schools To Integrate; No Plans For Grades

The Fulton City Board of Education apparently has failed to submit a school integration plan to U. S. District Court in Paducah as ordered, records in the clerk's office show.

W. L. Holland, superintendent of local schools told the News that failure to file the plan was in no manner intended to defy the court. It has been reported that three methods are in practice by which integration is effected into the public school systems. They are:

1. To invite the Negro students wishing admission into the school.
2. When faced with suit to present a plan to the court.
3. To integrate by decree of the court.

Failure of the Fulton City Board of Education to file a plan by the designated date permits the court to issue a decree for integration.

Reports indicate that nearly 75 per cent of the public schools in Kentucky have effected integration. It has been also reported that only the high schools in this county will integrate. There are no plans in the immediate future to integrate the elementary schools of this county.

Federal Judge Roy M. Shellenbarger has ordered the Fulton board to file "a comprehensive plan for the abolition and elimination of alleged unconstitutional practices" by March 25.

The action came after a suit was filed in Federal Court here Jan. 31 by the parents of 16 Negro pupils who claimed they were denied admission to Fulton High School Sept. 8, 1956.

A check of the records Friday revealed no such plan had been filed.

LOCAL SOFTBALL LEAGUE FORMED FOR '57 SEASON

Local Firms To Sponsor Teams; Play Begins Soon

Plans are being made to start a Fulton Men's Softball League to begin within the next three weeks.

Sponsors of the teams include WFUL - FULTON COUNTY NEWS, Charlie Seates Stores, Pepsi Cola Bottling Co., Jones Auto Parts, Pure Milk Company, and the American Legion.

Each team will have a roster of fifteen players with no age limit. The managers of the teams will bid for players from the list of ninety persons expected to participate. Each team is required to have three players on their roster over 35 years of age and not more than five players under the age of 20.

Any person interested in playing in the city softball league are asked to contact either Bing Hampton at Radio Station WFUL, Don Sensing at Jones Auto Parts, Leon Mann at the American Legion, or John Joe Campbell at Parisian Laundry. If enough names are secured by Friday, the player draft will be made Friday night.

Mr. J. O. Lewis has been elected Commissioner of the proposed league. It has been proposed that any proceeds from attendance will go to the city park fund.

Clean-Up Yards---Kill Mosquito Now Residents Urged

Clean up your yards! Cut the weeds and grass regularly . . . haul off old tin cans, tires, anything that will hold water as a breeding place for mosquitoes. The anti-mosquito campaign around Fulton is underway . . . and to make it effective you must help!

The above statement was issued jointly by the City of Fulton, the City of South Fulton, the Obion County Health Department the Tennessee State Department of Health, the Fulton County Department of Health, the Kentucky State Department of Agriculture and the Kentucky Department of Health . . . all of whom have joined hands to stamp out encephalitis (sleeping sickness) in and around Fulton by a gigantic, intensive effort this year.

The campaign is pin-pointed at the twin-cities and the area within one mile of them in every direction; farms and city homes alike.

An intensive and regular spraying campaign by air and on the ground begins this week, using DDT and chlordane. Ground spraying will seek to kill the culex mosquito larvae; air-spraying will aim for those already flying. The culex mosquito has been identified as that which carries the sleeping-sickness germ.

Do you know the mosquito "cycle" . . . do you know why the big clean-up is necessary on the ground before the pest can be eliminated? Here it is . . .

1. The female of the culex mosquito lays eggs on the surface of stagnant water. Tin cans, old barrels, old tires, any kind of still water.
2. In three to five days, the eggs hatch into larvae, known as "wiggle tails", which swim around in the water, occasionally coming up for air.
3. In another three to five days, the larvae develop into tiny cigar-shaped "pupae" that float on the water. Then the pupae spit open and the adult mosquito emerges and flies away.

A thorough clean-up campaign will eliminate most potential breeding places of the mosquito. Water that remains will be sprayed by ground crews. Mosquitoes that manage to mature will be subject to air-spray and if all goes well, we should find very few of the irritable insects around Fulton this summer.

That is . . . if you are doing your part!

FIGHT ARMY WORMS FARMERS WARNED

Farmers should be watching to see if Army Worms are damaging their crops. The University of Kentucky has a light-trap on the Lucian Isbell farm to catch Army Worm moths. Mr. Isbell reports an unusually large catch this spring, so if weather conditions are right, we might expect a large infestation of Army Worms, in the County within the next 10 days.

Texaphene is recommended by the University as one of the most economical control material. Use according to manufacturer's directions.

NANCY WELCOMED HOME SATURDAY

Nancy Adams, young Fulton vocalist who won an Arthur Godfrey "Talent Scout" contest and went on to sing and play the ukelele and trumpet for two weeks on the nationwide daily Godfrey TV program, returned to Fulton from New York last Saturday afternoon where a civic welcome awaited her arrival.

With the Fulton and South Fulton combined bands leading a parade containing Nancy, a long line of autos wended their way to the bandstand on Lake Street in downtown Fulton, where probably a thousand spectators were on hand for the welcome.

At the bandstand, Nancy was presented a beautiful bouquet of red roses by the YMBC, which sponsored the "welcome home" event. At the ceremonies, the welcoming address was made by Bertie Pigue on behalf of the YMBC. Also speaking were Smith Atkins, Mrs. Adams, Mr. Adams, Paul Westpheling, Mrs. Tripp, Mrs. Westpheling and Nancy.

Nancy returned to Fulton High school Monday morning and is devoting every minute to catching up on the three weeks' classwork she has missed while in New York. With graduation a scant three weeks away, she reports that she has had to regrettably decline many invitations to appear in the area until her school work is completed.

Those who took part in the play were: Clara McMurray, Dale Clark, Janice Downey, Dan Weatherspoon, Jeannette Roper, Barbara Turner, Mattie Jo Sutton, Jerry Douglas, Billy Cursinger, Agnes Ferguson, Wanda Norton, Sandra Hale, William Armstrong, Neil Elks, Patricia Jones, Larry Henderson, and Glynn Goodwin.

The usherettes were Joyce Hardison and Elaine Bellew. Leon Shetton and Charles Hardison were stage managers. Mrs. Leslie Walker directed the cast.

NEW OPTOMETRIST OPENS OFFICE HERE

Dr. Charles T. Alexander, an optometrist from Scottsville, Ky., and a native of Fulton County is today opening an office on Lake Street in Fulton.

Dr. Alexander's wife, Dolores, who is a native of Hickman, and their three children, Julia Marie 8, Charles David 4, and Jim Marshall 2, will move to Fulton in June.

The Alexanders will make their home at their farm on the Middle Road.

Dr. Alexander is president-elect of the Rotary Club at Scottsville, is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Masonic Lodge. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Alexander, who has been practicing his profession for the past seven years, is a graduate of the Southern College of Optometry, Memphis.

Many Close Races Loom; Candidates Nearing Wind Up

A Citizen's slate for Good Government in Fulton, two candidates for Commonwealth's attorney, and nearly 30 various county and magisterial offices are entering the home-stretch of their campaigning all over the county.

Tuesday, May 28th will see a record turn-out of voters to elect a sheriff, a county judge, a circuit court clerk, a county court clerk, tax commissioner, county jailer, county attorney and several constables and magistrates.

Thus far the candidates have confined their campaigning to workman-like projects, visiting door-to-door, attending many public gatherings and calling on the various county political leaders. Within the next three weeks newspaper messages and radio messages will bring forth last minute appeals for "votes and influence."

Much interest is centered, although quietly, in a slate of local business and professional leaders who seek to be elected to the Fulton City Council.

Twelve persons have submitted their candidacies for the six seats on the Fulton Council. One candidate for Mayor, popular Cub Scout leader, Nelson Tripp, has no opponent in the primary.

Reports have circulated in political circles that perhaps an independent candidate may submit for Fulton's Mayor on the November ballot.

The Fulton County News lists three candidates for sheriff. They are: M. E. "Red" Garrison, L. D. Alexander and Ancil Royer. Both Mr. Garrison and Mr. Alexander are former candidates and indications are that this race will see a good campaign.

In the county judge's race political dopesters are giving no odds, indicating that this race too will be a close one. John C. Bondurant, Mayor of Hickman is well known in county political circles having been identified prominently with several Democratic campaigns on the state level. Dee McNeil, a former candidate is said to be running his best race, while Judge Roberts, the incumbent appears to be holding his long-time popularity.

In other races the campaigning is enthusiastic and candidates are leaving no stones unturned to meet and visit with the voters before primary date on May 28.

Considerable interest too is centered in the first district magistrate's race with Charlie Stephenson, Kellie Lowe and incumbent James Willingham in a three-way battle.

Perhaps one of the most spirited campaigns in the county is the magisterial race in District No. Two, where three other candidates are seeking the office now held by Clyde Corum. Mr. Corum, who has served for eleven years on the Fiscal Court is seeking re-election. His opponents are M. O. Champion, Bill Mays and A. L. Cox.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT PRESENTS PROGRAM OF UNUSUAL TALENT

Ninth Annual Event Enjoys Most Delightful Program

Before one of the largest and most appreciative audiences ever assembled at the annual Evening of Music, the Music Department of the Woman's Club similarly presented one of the most outstanding musical programs in the history of the club.

Presenting unusual combinations of piano and choral groups, the audience was charmed and delighted at the tremendous talent arranged for the ninth annual event.

A magnificent performance was given by eight outstanding local pianists who presented "Prelude in G Minor," by Rachmaninoff. This piano performance was presented for the first time in the history of Fulton music circles. Participating were: Mesdames Inez Claxton, Edward Benedict, Sr., Steve Wiley, C. L. Maddox, James Carter, S. M. DeMyer, Thad Fagan, and Miss Mary Swann Bushart.

"An Evening of Music," presented annually is the local highlight of National Music Week and each year's performances grow in interest and artistry.

Dear Pat,
Have some questions would like you to answer for me.
I have been very unhappy for a long time. Will I ever find any happiness? If so, when? With whom? Do I mean anything to N. M. or C. M.? Why doesn't N. M. ever come around to see us anymore?

Thanks,
M. V. D.
Do not see any change in your life. You don't mean anything to either of these people. The reason N. M. stopped coming around is the way you act; you will never know what love is if you don't change your ways.

Dear Patricia,
Read your letters every week. Just wonder if you could help me.

Does my husband go with other women? Will he ever come home to stay? Does he send me all the money that he can?

Where is my boy, and is he working? Do you think that he will ever marry again? If so, where and what are the initials of the girl? Will they do any good?

M. E. H.
Dear M. E. H.

Yes your husband goes with other women but they don't mean a thing to him. Yes he will come home to stay but not any time soon. I wouldn't say that he is sending you all the money he can because he could send more, but then if he did there wouldn't be any recreation at all for him. Your son is in the state of Michigan; yes he is working. Yes, he will marry again but it will be several years before he does. But when he does they will get along and be happy; her initial will be J.

Dear Patricia,
I've been reading your letters and I think you can help me. My brother wants to cook in the kitchen. Should I just let him go ahead, and let him alone? Does a boy in my class really like me? He and I work together all of the time in our books. Will my home ever be any different?
Signed,
E.

Dear E.
Yes, let him cook; if he wants to even show him how to cook. Yes, the boy you are talking about is secretly in love with you. Yes, your home will be different but that is some time off yet.

Dear Pat,
You have helped so many of my friends, would you answer these questions for me? Should we buy a house and furniture around here, or will my husband get work here? Will I go to work steady? Will I have any more children? Will my sister get married soon and if so, could I have the initials.
Thank you,
M. A. R.

Dear M. A. R.
Yes, buy the house and furniture; he will get a real good job but it will not be the first job he has, it will be his second. Yes, you will get steady work in a factory. No, you will not have any more children. No, your sister will not marry until the latter part of next year and she hasn't met him yet.

Dear Patricia Latane,
Please answer these questions for me. Please answer soon.

Will my brother marry the girl he is going with now? Does R. G. or J. R. love me? What will my life career be? Will I still continue to do well in my studies?
Thanks so much,
S. H.

Dear S. H.
Yes, your brother will marry the girl. R. G. is in love with you but J. R. just likes you, he isn't in love with you. You will be a secretary. Yes, you will do well in your studies.

Dear Pat,
I enjoy your column. Will you help me too? Will I get the financial help I'm thinking of to buy a home or will I buy one, and where?
Did my husband go out with the secretary or have anything to do with her personally.
Is my youngest son and wife happy now? Did they ever separate.

When will my daughter and family come back to the states, and where will they locate?
My mother is in very poor health now, will we have her very long with us?

Will I get pay for the job I'm doing now?
Is my son in Florida doing well financially now? Can you answer in next week's column?
Please.

E. S. C.
Dear E. S. C.

Yes, you will get the help you have to have to buy a home and it will be about 5 miles from where you are now living. No, your husband has not been out with his secretary nor someone else's secretary. Your youngest son and wife did separate but it only lasted one night; they are back together and everything is rosy. Yes, your daughter will come back to the states and will live in Illinois. Your mother will live several years yet. Your son in Florida is doing very well for himself, you need not worry at all about him.

Dear Pat,
Would like to know what you think of our future? My husband hasn't been well lately, and has been more nervous. Will he stay on the job he has and keep the house we now have?

Will his future health be better and how soon? Will the Dr. we both go to, correct the conditions bothering us?
A person has caused us a lot of worry. Will that person ever bother us again or will we ever contact them again?

Will we be able to give our child the christian home we want and make all our future brighter? Will we prosper more and enjoy the future and be a help to others as we pray to be?

Would appreciate any information you can give us. Will we be better off with the home we now have, or will we have to move some place else?
Thank you,
M. A.

Dear M. A.
Yes your husband will remain where he is, and you will now are. Yes, both you and your husband will enjoy better health in the very near future. You will not be bothered with the person anymore. Your prayers will be answered and your child will have a christian home. You will be better off where you are.

Dear Patricia Latane,
I have been reading your column and think it is great. I would like for you to answer my question:
Where is my 8th grade class ring, and my birthstone ring?
Thank you,
M. L. M.

Dear M. L. M.
Your rings are in an old trunk, and I would say it's in an out-house or what people call smoke house.

Dear Pat,
I would like for you to answer some questions for me. Does K. D. love me? Will we ever marry? Tell me who is the cause of our trouble? Give me the initial and who tells K.

Where did E. D. lose her wedding band? Does T. D. tell lies to K. D. about me? If so, why is he doing it?
Please put this in next weeks paper.

Thank you,
M. W.

Dear M. W.
His people are trying to keep you apart but you will get married in June or July and then they will accept you and stop lying about you. E. D. lost her wedding band in gravel, I would say in front of a pig stand or drive in eat place. K. D.'s parents have got T. D. tellings things about you to try and prevent K. D. and you from getting married.

Dear Patricia Latane,
I sent my sister $5.00 in a Christmas Card. She did not get it. Who did get it was it delivered to her mail box?

Why did my husband get laid-off his job, this was about 10 years ago.
How much longer will I work, if my health holds out? Please answer as soon as you can.

M. T. S.
Dear M. T. S.

The person living in the house with her took it out of the mail box and took the money out of it. Your husband was laid off on account of his showing up late for work and his drinking. You will work for about 12 more years.

The school programs for the year were ended Friday night when the 8th grade presented the play "Huckleberry Finn." Much work is expected to be done this week in preparation for the final test. The very fine eighth grade class was invited to Martin one day last week where they are expected to enter high school next year. From observation we expect this class to rival the class that will graduate from Martin this year. We are especially proud of the high school record this class has made. There are seventeen students in the upper one third of the senior class. Eight of the students are from Chestnut Glade. We think this a very good record.

Miss Patricia Jones from Memphis spent last weekend with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Winstead arrived from Texas where he has been stationed with the Army for the past two years. He expects to get civilian employment as he has received a discharge.

Strawberry picking is the order of the day around here. The more we have berries the less we think we know about them. The berries are a few days earlier this year but appear to have ripened slower than others of the past two years. It appears that we will have a big picking if much nicer berries today, Monday, than last week. So come on strawberry pickers.

Diary of Doin's

By Mary Nelle Wright

Hear Mary-Nelle's program, "My Fair Lady" every day on WFUL at 9:30 a.m., Monday through Friday.

What a joy and privilege it was for us to attend the delightful reception given on Sunday afternoon at the Woman's Club when the Parent-Teachers Association of Terry-Norman school honored one of the most beloved members of the Faculty of the Fulton City School, Mrs. Jessie Lee Fleming, who is retiring from her profession and from her position as principal of the Terry Norman school at the close of the current year.

"Miss Jessie Lee", as she is affectionately called by all of us who love her, began her career as a school teacher when she was just 18 years old and she has given the best of her life to the hundreds of children that she has taught in Fulton.

It would be a task far too large for me, to put into words the tributes that I should like to pay to Miss Jessie Lee but a few lines from a poem written by Louis Utermeyer explains her life to me — because I know she was never satisfied with things half-done in all of the many years of her teaching.

"From compromise and things half done,
Keep me with stern and stubborn pride.
And when, at last, the fight is won,
God, keep me still unsatisfied."

And the many friends of Miss Jessie Lee tried, in our small way, Sunday to let her know how we love her and how grateful we are to her for having given oh, so many years to our children in Fulton.

The Woman's club never looked lovelier than it did Sunday when over three hundred called between the hours of 3 to 5 p. m.

The club room featured a color scheme of pink, green, and white with lovely arrangements of roses, iris, peonies and carnations. Many of the floral arrangements were gifts from friends of the honoree.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Clyde P. Williams, Jr., president of the PTA for the current year. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Walter A. Voelpel, chairman of the reception committee, W. L. Holland, Superintendent of the Fulton City Schools, Mrs. Fleming, her daughter, Mrs. James H. Isbell of Chevy Chase, Maryland, and Miss Pauline Thompson, newly elected principal of Terry-Norman School.

Mrs. Fleming wore a handsome afternoon dress of deep beige satin-embroidered linen with satin trim designed along the lines. She wore three orchids which were gifts.

Mrs. Charles Noles, president of the PTA for the 1957-58 school year, presided at the register.

Members of the hostess committee were Mrs. Morgan Omar, Mrs. Fred Homra, Mrs. Jerry Jones, Mrs. Jack Carter, Mrs. C. D. Edwards and Mrs. James L. Mullenix.

The refreshment table was draped with a floor length ruffled net cloth over pink. Centering the table was a crystal epergue holding pink rose buds and pink candles which was flanked by double crystal candelabra holding pink candles. Individual cakes iced in pink and green and lime punch were served. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Fred Bondurant, Miss Kathryn Williamson, Mrs. Arthur Roman and Mrs. J. P. McClay, who are Mrs. Fleming's associates.

Assisting in serving the guests were the girls of the sixth grade, who are Mrs. Fleming's pupils. These girls were: Misses Mary Idella Bondurant, Pamela Homra, Judith Ann Stanfield, Judy Owens, Darlene Roberts, Nancy Sisson, Frieda Kay Yates, Sandra Holt and Kay Stark.

I think I have told you — how happy I am to be back in dear old Fulton — after such an exciting trip to New York. And certainly it is the most wonderful thing in the world to have our MANY FRIENDS so interested in us. I wish that I might have the time to visit with each and every one of you — in fact, I'd love to sit down in your living rooms and relate everything that happened to us — our trip up to New York — our stay there and our return trip home. It was a delightful experience and I feel so fortunate to have been included.

Last week, on the "My Fair Lady" program at WFUL, I tried to give you a comprehensive report on all of the nice things that happened to us — but — most of all — I tried to tell you more about the actual city, itself. As you may well know — one could talk for days, weeks, months and still be unable to do anything except "scratch the surface" of that fabulous metropolis.

I hope you enjoyed Jo's Notebook last week as she tried to give the HIGHLIGHTS while I told you about my wonderful experience in meeting the Strom family of "The $84,000 Question" fame.

But — now we're almost "back to normal" again — and believe me — it is a good feeling. There is ONE part of my trip that I have failed to mention — and that, of course, was the HAPPIEST part of ALL — for ME. On our return we stopped over in Washington and spent the night with some of our FAVORITE people. Wilda and Dr. Thomas Callahan and their three delightful youngsters, Carol, Skipper and Bill. I think I have told you how fond I am of this lovely family. They are actually a part of my own family, you know. Thomas is three or four years younger than I and he always tells a GOOD story about, "Mary Nelle spent hours with me stepping all over her toes (when I was a gay blade) trying to teach me to dance — and — I smoked my first CIGARETTE in her house with my eyes glued across the road to be sure Mother wasn't on her way over to the McDade house."

I might add that I certainly am in the category of having received "honorable mention" for PRODUCING such an outstanding GENTLEMAN in the DANCING field. Because you may WELL know that DR.

OPEN HOUSE for Mrs. Jessie Lee Fleming last Sunday brought hundreds of friends and former pupils to the Fulton Woman's Club to pay their respects to one who is in highest esteem in local teaching circles. (Above: Supt. Lawrence Holland, Mrs. Fleming and daughter, Mrs. Jim Isbell chat in the receiving line. (See Diary).

EVERYONE CAME TO SAY HELLO: The Terry-Norman eighth-graders, in formals, (above) chat with Mrs. Fleming and are joined by Mrs. C. L. Maddox, herself a former pupil of Mrs. Fleming.

TOM can certainly "trip the light fantastic". And we are the HAPPIEST people in the world to tell you that Carol, the darling Callahan daughter is making QUITE a name for herself in BALLET in Washington. Carol was one of the 15 ballet dancers who were chosen from the Washington area to appear in a very outstanding ballet that will be presented there next month by a ballet company from New York. Quite an accomplishment — I might add! (To my FRENDS — Skipper and Bill — One day I shall write a WHOLE page about both of you and tell how many medals YOU have won as CHAMPION Swimmers.)

We did SO enjoy our visit with ALL of you Callahans, Tom, Wilda, the "kids" and especially Wilda's mother (who was also a guest). Mrs. Hall who lives in nearby Washington, Virginia.

I left Jo in Washington to visit with her dear friend, Jeanne Letellier while I drove on to the place NEAREST heaven to me — the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. to see my son who is a midshipman there. I believe that was one of the most beautiful drives I have even taken. Maryland — with her rolling countryside, beautiful colonial homes — and SPRINGTIME! I haven't the words to tell you of the loveliness that was EVERYWHERE. The dogwood midshipmen live, about FOUR THOUSAND strong — and we walked over the "yard" — but, of course, Don was unable to go OUTSIDE the gates as they are restricted during week days. But, anyway — we had a good visit — and it was WORTH every mile! Don was so thrilled over Jo and Nancy and their success in New York. He is really looking forward to coming home to the "Banana Capitol of the World" after he returns from his South American cruise the last of July. It was so good to see his good friends, Lew Powell and his room mate Dusty Craver, who are both Texans. Am looking forward to seeing MORE of those two PLEBES next month!

I went back to Washington the next morning — picked Jo up — and we went out to Bill and Minetta Newton's out in Congress heights where we had a delightful lunch — and much TALK. Twas so good to see the Newtons — especially their two fine youngsters, Carol and Claude. Immediately after lunch — we were on our way to — FULTON!

I could write a good story about our trip over the mountains that night during a BLINDING RAIN with Jo covering up her head and praying for us SOON to be on LEVEL ground once more. One MIGHT think SHE was at the WHEEL — but DON'T — twas your diarist — and I was scared, too but WHO wants to SIT on a MOUNTAIN in a storm? I just figured I'd rather be "moving along".

Anyway — we're HOME — and it's GOOD to see faces of people we know and love — it's GOOD to walk down the street and say HELLO! to all of you — and I'm going to enjoy these next three weeks because, come THEN — and I'll head back EAST — again!

Here and There:

Ann Holland has an interesting trip in store for Thursday. She will take Susan Bushart, Sidney Callahan, Joan Carter and Ruth Butts down to Memphis where they will see the evening performance of La Traviata at the Auditorium.

Sara Bushart will have Mrs. Charles B. Stacy of Pineville, Kentucky for her guest Thursday. Mrs. Stacy will be in Fulton to attend the Woman's Auxiliary to the Fulton-Hickman County Medical Society at which time she will install the new officers in the group.

Had a nice chat with Nell Martin Bradford and her luncheon guests, Mrs. Golder Johnson and Miss Kathryn Smith of Hickman a day or so ago. The Hickman ladies were in Fulton to attend the Annual Flower Show at the Woman's Club. Wish that I might have had time for a longer "visit" with them — but you may well know — your Diarist is the BUSIEST one!

First in a series of parties given in honor of Miss Vireno Beard, Martin, Tennessee, bride elect of Mr. Robert Vahn Jennings of Mt. Juliet, Tenn. was a lovely tea at the Gilson Latta home on Saturday, April 27, from 3 to 5 p. m. with Mrs. Latta and daughter, Ann and Mrs. Walter Hill as hostesses.

For the occasion the house was beautifully decorated in gift bouquets.

The radiant honoree was lovely in a white net frock styled with a bouffant skirt and elongated bodice encrusted with rhinestones. She wore a purple orchid. Mrs. Viron Beard, mother of the bride wore an attractive model in champagne lace. Mrs. W. B. Jennings, mother of the groom, of Mt. Juliet, Tennessee wore petal pink lace. Mrs. Walter Hill grandmother of the bride elect was lovely in a heather blue lace and chiffon dress. Guests were invited into the dining room by Mrs. Bill Beard of Martin. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. Charles Beard, grandmother of the bride and an aunt, Mrs. Fred Orr of Mayfield. The table was overlaid with a white Italian cutwork cloth and was centered with a five branch silver candelabra holding white tapers surrounded with bridal wreath.

Cooking over their first campfire is part of the special camping program Easter Seals give west Kentucky crippled children. Special resident camping at Kentucky Lake last summer gave patients of the West Kentucky Center for Handicapped Children, Paducah, proper exercise, therapy, and good food, as well as fun. Camping is part of the service given to youngsters in this area through contributions to the Easter Seal campaign.

'57 DAIRYING PROFITS MAY EXCEED '56, STATE SURVEY INDICATES IN ITS OUTLOOK

Profits from Dairying in Kentucky in 1957 are expected to equal — or perhaps slightly exceed — those of 1956, the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station's economics department said this week in its special outlook letter.

Feed costs this year have been about the same as last year; and feed prices this spring are not expected to move upward as in 1956. Prospects are for lower feed prices this fall, too, the letter noted.

Milk prices are expected to remain close to last year's price for the remainder of 1957, the economists think.

In milk production, the letter noted, production per cow in Kentucky has risen only 12 percent in the last 10 years compared to 20 percent for the U. S. This may be due to a higher proportion of breeds with less productive capacity in Kentucky; and presence of many small herds whose purpose primarily is furnishing milk for the home.

Steady to slight improvement in prices is forecast for broilers for the next three to four months. Chick placements, for one, are about the same as last year; thus, by late June, broiler numbers put on the market will be about the same as last year's. Consumer income increases and population increases will strengthen demand for broilers; and supply of competing meats is expected to be about the same as last year's.

The economists foresee little chance of broiler prices in the next year reaching the high levels of the first three quarters of 1955. Size of broiler hatchery supply flocks may decline some by fall, due to a 10 percent decline in chick placement for such flocks in February and March. However, this may not limit the production of broilers as producers will tend to cull their flocks less and a larger percentage of their eggs will be used to produce broiler-type chicks.

Pierce-Harris Club Has April Meeting

The Pierce-Harris Community Club held its April meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Faulkner, with 20 members and 10 visitors. The president called the meeting to order. The group enjoyed singing led by Mrs. L. D. Allen. Roll call was answered with a yard improvement. Project leaders gave their reports. After a delicious lunch, Miss Cora Livingston gave advice on lawn and shrub improvement.

Mrs. L. D. Allen and Mrs. M. E. Thorpe were to enter the dress contest in Union City. A contest was conducted by Mrs. Hoyt Griffin. The club adjourned to meet in May with Mrs. Clara Dedmon.

DEATHS

Mrs. Daisy Holloway

Mrs. Daisy Holloway died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boone Lawrence of Wingo, Route 1, at 3:45 p. m. Monday, April 29, after a short illness. She was 79.

She was born in Graves County, Ky. April 8, 1878. She was the widow of the late Hardin Holloway, who died in 1941. She was the daughter of Samuel T. and Deborah Chandler Grace, also residents of Graves County.

She leaves a son, Dorris Holloway of Sheridan Lake, Colo.; five daughters, Mrs. Boone Lawrence and Mrs. Walter Hopkins of Wingo, Route 1, with whom she made her home, Mrs. Irene Morton of Lawrence, Kans., Mrs. Doy Miller, of Flagler, Colo., and Mrs. Mick Bunyard, of Wichita, Kans.; two brothers, D. T. Grace of Wingo and Dorris Grace of Los Angeles, Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Dellie Dorsett of Wingo, Route 1, Mrs. Alvin Holloway of Wingo, Mrs. Mary Russell of St. Louis, and Mrs. Willis Morrison of Chairmore, Okla.; 14 grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Little Bethel Missionary Baptist Church.

The funeral was held at Little Bethel Church. The Rev. E. R. Taylor of Hickory, Ky., officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

SEED CROP DOWN

The 1956 crop of Kentucky blue grass seed has been estimated at slightly less than 26 million pounds of cured seed. This is 53 per cent smaller than the 1955 crop.

KENTUCKY PLANS MAJOR BRUCELLOSIS CAMPAIGN; WILL AFFECT EVERYBODY

Livestock sales regulations featuring blood tests at stock-fair brucellosis-infected animals may be put in operation by June 1.

That's the word from Commissioner of Agriculture Ben J. Butler this week.

The action is being contemplated because of the relatively high incidence of brucellosis in the state. The proposed control measures are the most necessary step the state has taken so far in its energetic campaign to eradicate the disease among Kentucky livestock. The new rules are termed "highly desirable" by Butler and state livestock leaders.

Here's what the contemplated regulations embody:

Every livestock sales yard in the state will have a veterinarian (with necessary helpers) on hand on sale days, to take blood samples from livestock offered for sale. The vets will be hunting brucellosis particularly, but will also have an eye out for other infectious diseases, such as mastitis, hog cholera, sheep scab, etc.

The vets also will check cattle health certificates; vaccinate animals where necessary; see that diseased stock is placed in proper disposal channels; inspect all animals presented for sale before they are released for movement from the sale to farm; inspect vehicles used to haul diseased livestock to see that disinfection has taken place; etc.

A system of fees, nominal in character in view of the importance of the work and its volume has been set up. The State Division of Livestock Sanitation will furnish strain 19 brucellosis vaccine and pay for the vaccination of heifer calves four through eight months of age going back to the farm. Blood testing at the yards will be paid by the seller of the animal. Generally, the stockyards will handle the collection (paper work) on such fees.

The regulations carry considerable "teeth." For instance, veterinarians will be officers of the state, to give them authority; stockyards must comply with rigid sanitation and disinfection regulations; and no stockyard may offer for sale (unless it is for slaughter) any animal "that manifests symptoms of illness in the opinion of the veterinarian."

Butler said the regulations also specify that before any sale may begin, dairy cattle, breeding stock (including bulls, cows and heifers) shall be separated from all other cattle and tested for brucellosis — unless such cattle are accompanied by proper health certificates.

Cattle condemned for having brucellosis must be branded as such and sold for immediate slaughter. Suspects must be sold for slaughter or returned to the owner's premises under a written quarantine and retested within 30 days.

There are safeguards, however, for the farmer whose cattle pass the tests. Such livestock may be offered for resale in the state within 30 days without being retested if accompanied by health certificates. Officially vaccinated cattle under 30 months of age will not be tested if properly tattooed or identified with calf-hood vaccination certificates.

Veterinarians also can issue permits for removal of "reactor cattle" to a federally-inspected packing house or stockyards.

Butler said only steers, sprayed heifers, calves of any sex up to eight months of age, cattle designated for immediate slaughter and so certificated, and cattle assigned to a federally inspected stockyard or slaughter house may move from a Kentucky stockyard without being tested for brucellosis. All other classes of cattle (except from accredited herds) must have passed a negative test within the last 30 days, or be tested before any sale.

"These regulations are aimed at moving in right away against infectious diseases that have hurt our livestock program for years," the commissioner said. "We are one of the last states in the south to adopt such control measures."

He pointed out that surrounding states' and new Federal regulations might make it impossible for Kentucky cattle to be moved there and sold unless the contemplated regulations are adopted and carried out.

Pasture Renovation

We have been talking about conservation, cutting costs and the like, now I think it is a good time to start on the renovation of old pastures and the seeding of new ones. There are ways of doing the job much cheaper these days.

The first item on today's list will be the pasture renovator. There are several on the market now, so I will first talk about selection of machines to do the best job. In selecting a pasture renovator or grass-land seeder you want to be sure to have a large capacity fertilizer hopper. This will save you time in refilling. This may not seem to be a very important item, but when you can cut stops during the day, several hours work may be gained in a week. It is common knowledge that speed alone doesn't finish the job, but continued work will show results. Next, be sure the machine is flexible enough to work over rough ground and obstructions, without breakage. The renovator should be easily pulled by the average farm tractor.

With this machine small grain may be seeded in the fall without a seed-bed and with very good results. Old pasture reseeding and fertilization accomplished to one operation with no seed-bed preparation is another feature. Sudan seeding is another move forward in seeding with the renovator. If your renovator has a large fertilizer box you will even spread phosphate or potash and in some cases lime. The important point in this is the fact that the material is placed in the sod or below the surface so that run-off is almost impossible. Now then you know how important a machine of this nature is to your farming operation. Many jobs accomplished in one operation.

How much do you save? Well a common grain drill will not last long if you try seeding old pastures without a little preparation. You will save at least two trips over the field in seeding small grain and up to three in establishing new pasture. Now you will not always want to use this old pasture. Under some conditions the field in question may need to be plowed because of undesirable weeds.

These machines are being used successfully in Illinois and Kentucky and have been for five years. If you haven't seen

ACREAGE RESERVE AGREEMENTS ARE LEGALLY BINDING, ASC POINTS OUT

Acresage Reserve Agreements Bind egally, Says Mr. Bard. A soil Bank Acresage Reserve agreement is a legal contract between the farmer who signed it and the U. S. Government, Mr. Bard, Chairman of the Fulton Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers recently. Under the agreements, both parties obligate themselves to carry out specific provisions of the program. Regulations under which the program is operated make no provision for revision or cancellation of the Acresage Reserve agreements after the close of the sign-up for the crop covered by the agreement, the Chairman explained. The closing date for signing Acresage Reserve agreements was March 1 for tobacco and cotton and March 8 for corn. During the sign-up period, however, farmers were permitted to cancel agreements or to substitute new agreements for those previously signed.

Compliance with his Acresage Reserve agreement will determine whether or not a farmer will receive his full payment, according to Mr. Bard. Each farmer who signed an agreement agreed to comply with all acresage allotments established for his farm. And he also agreed not to graze or harvest a crop from the land designated for the Acresage Reserve.

Violation of either of these provisions will disqualify the farmer for the payment he might otherwise have earned. Furthermore, grazing or harvesting a crop from the designated Acresage Reserve land makes the farmer subject to a civil penalty equal to one-half the payment he would have earned by qualifying for the full payment.

Arthur Godfrey Deserves a Lot Of Credit For The Entertainment He Gives America

While tremendous attention is focused these days on the medium of entertainment, since the appearance of our own Nancy Adams on the Arthur Godfrey Show, it is only appropriate that we take time out to hand out kudos to that great entertainer, "that man himself" Arthur Godfrey.

Several times, in our newspapering we have run across various editors in the field of radio and television who have not always been complimentary about Mr. Godfrey and his modus operandi. The criticism is understandable. Mr. Godfrey has come a long way since his disc-jockeying days in Washington, D. C. and in his path towards success he has given a helping hand to many a young person, who might never have known the joy of top-flight entertainment had it not been for this likeable, easy-going, inimitable fellow. In short Mr. Godfrey is a success in his own right, and as you well know, one man's success doesn't always set real well with some folks who harbor visions of, but never quite know, success of their own.

Mr. Godfrey is an entertainer of the first water. His programs of evenings and in the mornings are designed for sheer entertainment. The unknown talent that he selects and brings to New York to have that "one big chance" are just plain folks, like you and us. The whole Nation, and we do mean everybody, takes a personal delight in joining those people in their anxieties to win that important Talent Scout program.

Multiply the pride we feel in Fulton for Nancy by the hundreds, maybe thousands of communities in the United States, and you too will realize that Mr. Godfrey's programs are designed for Hometown, U. S. A. It is for that reason, that in spite of the criticism he gets from some editors, he's still and will always be one of America's all-time favorite radio and TV personalities.

Compare Mr. Godfrey's personally directed programs of entertainment via music, with some of the heavy drama we have the unfortunate privilege of viewing sometimes. Alfred Hitchcock for instance; that Sunday program of murder, theft and mayhem is as out of place on Sunday evening as a prize-fight would be on Sunday morning during the church service. City Detective, The Line-Up, Sheriff of Cochise, Gun-smoke, Climax, even Play House 90 sometimes are so gruesome and revolting that we're amazed how our children escape being delinquents.

Of course Mr. Godfrey's programs aren't always the tops in entertainment as far as talent goes, but by and large the show is always delightful, its always interesting, and even if sometimes you don't agree with the audience in the talent it selects; you've never been cheated out of entertainment even if you listen only to Mr. Godfrey's commercials. (Sometimes we wonder what kind of nerves his sponsors have . . . but he keeps 'em and obviously they're pleased.)

Since all of our readers and radio station listeners have become dyed-in-the-wool Godfrey fans now, why not write to Mr. Arthur (that man himself) Godfrey and give him a little pat on the back for his wonderful work in the field of good entertainment and wish him Godspeed in his work for all the years to come. Address: Arthur Godfrey, CBS Television, 485 Madison Avenue, New York.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

I Am the Mother of Seven

By Mary Reed Newland, author of WE AND OUR CHILDREN

MY HUSBAND and I live in Monson, Mass. Bill works for the state highway department and I do some writing. But these are secondary jobs—our big job is to be Christian parents.

We have seven children: Monica, Jamie, John, Peter, Stephen, Philip and Christopher. We want them all to be spiritual-minded Christians conscious of their destiny as children of God and heirs of heaven.

ONE WAY we try to do this is to impress on them that they can find God in everything. For example, they can find God in the outdoors. Nature teaches children profound lessons about God. In nature they discover the signs of His genius and love displayed to serve and delight them.

I am amazed at the understanding the children show. One day one of them said, picking stones from a brook, "See the stones God washed for me." Country life is rich in such lessons. But lessons are found in the city too—at the park, by the river, in the sky, at the beach, on the window ledge.

AT HOME I find a lot of ways I can teach children about God. For example, blessing the bread before baking completes a work that both feeds and teaches. The children learn what Christ meant when He said, "You are the bread." As the yeast lifts and makes the dough alive with its own life, so Christians must lift society with their love and service and make it alive with the Christ-life in them.

Teaching the children to pray is my greatest joy. With help, even very little children can learn to include in their prayers all four kinds of prayer: contrition, petition, praise, and thanksgiving. Christopher is three and likes to be helped to be sorry for his naughtiness, to ask for favors for those he loves, and to express his love for the "Holy Trinity living in my soul." His "thank you's" could go on all night. He especially likes to pray for the Communists "so they'll love God." AND AFTER that comes the bedtime blessing. It is beautiful to see how important such a blessing becomes to a child. Even on evenings when things have not exactly been harmonious, each will come into my study where I write and ask, "will you please give me your blessing?"

There are various ways of blessing. Mainly it is by saying, "God bless you, my child, in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost," adding perhaps some wish for them like, "May you have a sweet sleep" or "a happy day tomorrow."

These are some of the things we do to solve the problem of raising children as Christians in a materialistic world. We have found that Christian family living can be fun.

The recently organized Sixteen Club of Fulton met Thursday night with Mrs. A. B. Roberts at her home on Jackson Street.

Informal entertainment was enjoyed throughout the evening and the following won prizes in various contests: Mrs. Everett Jolly and Mrs. Bob Harris.

The hostess served a delectable salad plate to three visitors, Mesdames Rupert Stilley, E. P. Daves, and Jesse Jordan; and these club members: Mesdames Buren Rogers, Elvia Myrick, Everett Jolley, Paul Turbeville, Clifton Linton, Bob Harris, and A. W. Mullins.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Lowe spent a few days last week in St. Louis shopping for fall merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Lewis and daughter, Jane, spent last week-end at Camp Pakentuck near Paducah. They were accompanied home by Jimmie who has spent the past several days there.

Officials of the Illinois Central System, and the Fruit Dispatch Company and the Standard Fruit and Steamship Company held a meeting here Monday for the purpose of discussing plans for proposed improvements at the new yards to facilitate handling of bananas being shipped through Fulton. Shipments of bananas through the terminal have increased until better equipment and more tracks are needed, it was pointed out during the meeting.

A survey of the tracks and the banana yard equipment was made and various phases of the matter taken, but plans will be further considered. Representing the railroad were: F. W. Law, asst. to vice-president, Chicago; E. P. McPike, manager perishable freight agent, Memphis; T. J. Quigley, general supt., Paducah; C. M. Chumley, district engineer, New Orleans; T. H. Robertson, assistant engineer, Paducah; C. J. Carney, division engineer, Paducah; H. W. Williams, trainmaster, Fulton; D. T. Crocker, supervisor, Dyersburg. Representing the Standard Fruit and Steamship Company were: T. R. Moorman, sales manager, Chicago; Frederick Rub, Fulton messenger.

These officials represented the Fruit Dispatch Company: G. E. Dexter, head of research department, New Orleans; D. A. Pepperdeen of New Orleans; P. D. Fisher, assistant to traffic manager, New York; W. J. Smith, traveler inspector, New Orleans; G. Kelley, general manager, New York; J. E. Wahlbridge, resident messenger.

Kentucky Windage

By F. W.

Thought for a sunny morning....

"The world is so full of a number of things...I'm sure we should all be as happy as Kings"...first words of a little song I recall having sung as a pupil in grade school.

Every once in a while, when I feel well rested, have my work in reasonable shape, and the morning air is invigorating, the little verse comes flitting back through memory to help the day's enjoyment.

In defense of the fisherman: Three fourths of the earth's surface is water; one-fourth land. Isn't that reason enough for man to spend thrice as much time fishing as tilling the land?

If all of us could get the idea of how valuable is the positive and constructive attitude and how valueless the negative, I am inclined to believe that the world could move ahead with less waste of energy.

If you like a thing, say so. If you don't like a thing, say so.

Try not to say, 'Well, I don't know. Maybe it's all right.'

Some people can keep a salesman dangling in the air for years, simply because they are so indefinite in their statements that the salesman does not know whether they are prospects or not. I would rather be thrown out of an office on my first call than to spend three years calling on a man who never got cold enough to let me quit nor hot enough to let me sell him. Hot...or cold—but luke warm, never!

If Jo and Nancy will hurry down to the Big Springs, (Tex) area this week-end, they can see themselves on the Godfrey TV program. Understand from a writer that the "Talent Scouts" show runs three weeks late down there and the program which was filmed as well as live, will be getting around to the April 22 'live' show on May 13, in that area. How about that!

There seems to be somewhat of a tempset in a teapot in the high historical circles of Missouri and Kentucky these days, all on account of a dispute as to where Daniel Boone is buried. In Missouri they say that Boone's grave was unmarked and when in 1845, Kentuckians arrived to move the remains to Frankfort; they moved the wrong grave. Missourians point out that for 16 years following Boone's death, the grave went without any marker at all, and when a tombstone was finally provided, it was placed on the wrong grave.

Reminds us of the time, back in the '30's, when a whiskered, wrinkled old fellow stalked into St. Joseph, Missouri and proclaimed that he was Jesse James...and that the grave of the famous outlaw was that of another man. To prove his point to a credulous group, he went back to the old James house, counted out so many paces from an old tree, and dug up a rusty revolver that he claimed to have buried. His story fitted history exactly.

And now, just any of these days, we expect Adolph Hitler to turn up, hale and hearty, after 13 years in hiding. Just wait and see!

How a woman sometimes behaves, as observed by Robert Sylvester, New York Daily News columnist: "Tells the taxi where to stop, opens a handbag, takes out a pocketbook, closes the handbag, opens the pocketbook, takes out a change purse, closes the pocketbook, opens the change purse, closes the change purse and hands the cab driver a $20 bill.... Opens the change purse, puts in her change, closes the change purse, opens the pocketbook, puts in the change purse, closes the pocketbook, opens the handbag, puts in the pocketbook, closes the handbag, looks at the people waiting for the cab, has a new idea and give the hack driver a new address two blocks down the street."

McCONNELL NEWS Mrs. L. T. Caldwell

Mr. Ray Ferguson of Memphis spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Ferguson and family.

Mrs. Effie Sharpe of Fulton recently visited her brother, Mr. Sam Welch and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight A. Drumm of Paris, Tenn. and son, Melvin of Sweetwater, Texas, visited her mother, Mrs. L. T. Caldwell and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Charley Gill and daughter last week.

In listing the graduates from this vicinity from the South Fulton High School, Billy Meacham's name was inadvertently omitted. Apologies, Billy, for we are all equally proud of you and wish for you all the good things for a successful future.

Our community was again saddened last week in the passing of Mrs. Charley Goodgine. The Goodgine family resided in this vicinity for a number of years and we extend our sympathy to the family in the loss of their mother.

Mrs. Bertis Levister of Martin spent last Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. R. H. Moss, Jr. and Mrs. L. T. Caldwell.

We also extend our sympathy to the family of Mrs. Valvie Fuller who passed away last week. Her son, William and family reside in our village.

Mr. J. M. Parrish is visiting her son, Thad Parrish and family.

DEATHS

Mrs. Sally Goodgine

Funeral services for Mrs. Sally Etta Goodgine were conducted Saturday morning, May 4, at 10:30 o'clock at the Paul Hornbeak Funeral Chapel by Brother Hoyt Barnett, Church of Christ minister of McConnell. Interment followed at the Mt. Moriah Cemetery in the Fulham vicinity.

Mrs. Goodgine had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Clint Cornwell and family of Detroit for the past several months. Her husband, Charlie Goodgine, preceded her in death earlier this year.

Mrs. Goodgine passed away in her sleep at approximately 6:00 a. m., Wednesday, May 1st.

Mrs. Goodgine's life was one filled with self-sacrifice and service for others, painstaking devotion to her husband, children and friends. She never learned to live by the hands of clock, but she measured her moments by the most urgent needs, finding time to solace one who grieved bringing blossoms and words of cheer to the sick, reaching to help a fallen one whose feet had stumbled along the way. She knew "the true meaning of sharing." Pain and suffering, trials and tribulations, confronted her on many occasions, however, her abiding faith and trust in God enabled her to meet the hindrances that obstructed her way. She was a devoted wife, a loving and understanding mother and always a thoughtful and considerate neighbor and friend.

She became a member of the Church of Christ at an early age of life and remained a loyal member all the years of her life. Due to the illness of her husband in the recent years, she was not permitted to attend regularly.

Mrs. Goodgine, the former Sally Etta Hawks, was born at Franklin, Tennessee in 1844. She was married to Charlie Goodgine in 1905. She and her late husband resided in the McConnell community for many years.

She is survived by her daughters, Mesdames Alphas Tucker of near Sharon, Tennessee, Clint Cornwell, Frank Ray and Mary Louise Lewis, all of Detroit; two sons, Henry

Otis Quisenberry

Word was received May 5, of the death of Otis Quisenberry of Wichita, Kans.

Mr. Quisenberry was a retired railroad operator and had been suffering from a heart ailment for years, but his death was unexpected. He was 77 years of age. He will be remembered by many who knew him when he lived at Water Valley. He is the brother of

When the site was selected for the Bath County seat in 1811, the land was owned by Richard Menifee and Col. Thomas Dye Owings, each of whom wished to bestow his name on the new town. It was decided to name the village for the man who erected the finest residence in the shortest time. The honor went to Owings and the town became Owingsville.

"Oh, boy! 3649 more nights like this!"

says Don Herold

THAT'S what I said the night I got my Beautyrest Mattress. What luxurious luxury!
And the Simmons people guarantee me ten full years of it. Ten times 365 means 3,649 more nights of sleeping comfort. (Now don't confuse me with leap years. I got confused one leap year, and that was enough.)

Simmons can make this amazing guarantee because the United States Testing Co. has proved the durability of Beautyrest. In a brutal laboratory test, Beautyrest lasted 2 1/2 times longer than any other mattress. And believe me, they practically beat the stuffing out of the ones they tested.
